Residential Burglary suspect arrested by Walnut Creek Police; District Attorney files charges

On July 30, 2024, around 11:00 a.m., an alert citizen called Walnut Creek Police to report a suspicious person entering their neighbor's backyard. WCPD officers responded to the 1100 block of Flowerwood Pl. and found the suspect, Joshua Spaincue, inside the residence. WCPD officers took him into custody and linked him to another burglary in the 800 block of Bancroft Rd. Spaincue was then booked at the Martinez Detention Facility on burglary charges.

WCPD Detectives presented the case to the Contra Costa County District Attorney's Office, which filed two counts of burglary against Spaincue. His bail is $250,000, and he remains in custody.
